

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794
To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the person submitting the sheet, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

HUSBAND

Born _____ Place _____
Chr. _____ Place _____
Marr. _____ Place _____
Died _____ Place _____
Bur. _____ Place _____

HUSBAND'S FATHER _____ HUSBAND'S MOTHER _____
HUSBAND'S OTHER WIVES _____

WIFE

Born _____ Place _____
Chr. _____ Place _____
Died _____ Place _____
Bur. _____ Place _____

WIFE'S FATHER _____ WIFE'S MOTHER _____
WIFE'S OTHER HUSBANDS _____

SEX M F	CHILDREN		WHEN BORN			WHERE
	Given Names	SURNAME	DAY	MONTH	YEAR	TOWN
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Native Heberite
Given Columbia
University Post

Vermont Hatch, a partner of the New York law firm of White and Case, has been appointed to the newly created position of Counsel to the University, it was announced Sunday by President Grayson Kirk of Columbia University. Mr. Hatch, who completed a six-year term as Alumni Trustee of the University on September 25, was graduated from the Columbia School of Law in 1916. He joined White and Case that year and became a partner in 1925. He

VERMONT HATCH

Vermont "Monty" Hatch, son of President Abram Hatch and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born in Heber on May 14, 1893. He died in New York City on April 4, 1959. He married Nita Cowlshaw.

Vermont Hatch distinguished himself as a lawyer of international fame. He graduated from Harvard university in 1913 and then from Columbia University Law School in 1916. He joined White & Case and became a partner in 1925, and then managed the Paris office in 1930-31. In 1952 he was appointed alumni trustee of Columbia University and in 1958 was appointed general counsel of the University. He died on the Columbia campus while attending a meeting. He was a fellow of the American Bar Association, a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Utah State Bar Association, the Orange County Bar Association, the New York County Lawyers' Association and the American Judicature Society and the American Law Institute. He was also a director of the Alpha Portland Cement Company and the Unity Fire and General Insurance Company.

Husband

VERMONT HATCH

was graduated from Harvard College cum laude in 1913. He has been a member of the New York bar since 1916 and the Utah bar since 1927. He was born in Heber City, Utah, May 14, 1893.

Mr. Hatch has been active for many years in Columbia Alumni Federation and Columbia Law School Alumni Association affairs. As a University Trustee he has been at different times a member of Trustee committees on Legal Affairs, Development, Finance and Education. His participation in American Bar Association activities has included work with the Committee on Peace and Law Through United Nations and the Committee on Facilities of the Law Library of Congress.

Mr. Hatch was chairman of the Committee on Federal Legislation of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York from 1935 to 1937.

From Ruby Provost
Scrapbook

VERMONT HATCH ^{p 380}

Vermont "Monty" Hatch, son of President Abram Hatch and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born in Heber on May 14, 1893. He died in New York City on April 4, 1959. He married Nita Cowlshaw.

Vermont Hatch distinguished himself as a lawyer of international fame. He graduated from Harvard university in 1913 and then from Columbia University Law School in 1916. He joined White & Case and became a partner in 1925, and then managed the Paris office in 1930-31. In 1952 he was appointed alumni trustee of Columbia University and in 1958 was appointed general counsel of the University. He died on the Columbia campus while attending a meeting. He was a fellow of the American Bar Association, a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Utah State Bar Association, the Orange County Bar Association, the New York County Lawyers' Association and the American Judicature Society and the American Law Institute. He was also a director of the Alpha Portland Cement Company and the Unity Fire and General Insurance Company.

VERMONT HATCH

Vermont "Monty" Hatch, son of President Abram Hatch and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born in Heber on May 14, 1893. He died in New York City on April 4, 1959. He married Nita Cowlshaw.

Vermont Hatch distinguished himself as a lawyer of international fame. He graduated from Harvard university in 1913 and then from Columbia University Law School in 1916. He joined White & Case and became a partner in 1925, and then managed the Paris office in 1930-31. In 1952 he was appointed alumni trustee of Columbia University and in 1958 was appointed general counsel of the University. He died on the Columbia campus while attending a meeting. He was a fellow of the American Bar Association, a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Utah State Bar Association, the Orange County Bar Association, the New York County Lawyers' Association and the American Judicature Society and the American Law Institute. He was also a director of the Alpha Portland Cement Company and the Unity Fire and General Insurance Company.

losis Association. Last year have their chests X-rayed, as did 172 Midway residents.

Native Heberite Given Columbia University Post

Vermont Hatch, a partner of the New York law firm of White and Case, has been appointed to the newly created position of Counsel to the University, it was announced Sunday by President Grayson Kirk of Columbia University.

Mr. Hatch, who completed a six-year term as Alumni Trustee of the University on September 25, was graduated from the Columbia School of Law in 1916. He joined White and Case that year and became a partner in 1925. He was graduated from Harvard College cum laude in 1913. He has been a member of the New York bar since 1916 and the Utah bar since 1927. He was born in Heber City, Utah, May 14, 1893.

VERMONT HATCH

Mr. Hatch has been active for many years in Columbia Alumni Federation and Columbia Law School Alumni Association affairs. As a University Trustee he has been at different times a member of Trustee committees on Legal Affairs, Development, Finance and Education. His participation in 60,000 American Bar Association activities has included work with the Committee on Peace and Law Through United Nations and the Committee on Facilities of the Law Library of Congress.

Mr. Hatch was chairman of the Committee on Federal Legislation of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York from 1935 to 1937.

VERMONT HATCH

380

Vermont "Monty" Hatch, son of President Abram Hatch and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born in Heber on May 14, 1893. He died in New York City on April 4, 1959. He married Nita Cowlishaw.

Vermont Hatch distinguished himself as a lawyer of international fame. He graduated from Harvard University in 1913 and then from Columbia University Law School in 1916. He joined White & Case and became a partner in 1925, and then managed the Paris office in 1930-31. In 1932 he was appointed alumni trustee of Columbia University and in 1958 was appointed general counsel of the University. He died on the Columbia campus while attending a meeting. He was a fellow of the American Bar Association, a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Utah State Bar Association, the Orange County Bar Association, the New York County Lawyers' Association and the American Judicature Society and the American Law Institute. He was also a director of the Alpha Portland Cement Company and the Unity Fire and General Insurance Company.